Commissioner for Rural Development

ORDER

The Commissioner for Rural Development in his letter read above has informed that as Government of India have substituted Indira Awaas Yojana (IAY) with Prime Minister's Awaas Yojana (PMAY) from 01.04.2016 onwards the Ministry of Rural Development has directed to constitute District Level Appellate Authority (DLAA) in order to operationalize the process of grievance redressal in the selection of beneficiaries. The Commissioner for Rural Development has requested Government to constitute District Level Appellate Authority (DLAA) with the following members to hear the appeals against the removal or prioritization of beneficiaries in the list approved by Grama Sabha and to publish the final priority list of beneficiaries of the Grama Sabha concerned after the disposal of petitions:

1. Project Director, Poverty Alleviation Units- Nominee of the District
Collector and Convener.
2. Assistant Development Commissioner (G1)- Official.
3. Chairman Welfare Standing Committee of District Panchayats-
Non-Official.

3) Government have examined the matter in detail and are pleased to constitute the District Level Appellate Authority (DLAA) for Prime Minister's Awaas Yojana (PMAY) as mentioned above.
